Hugh Ryan

Administrative Assistant

Hugh joined David Morley Architects in 1999. He has a key role in the admin team and is responsible for filing of all projects and setting up the paper filing system. He prepares the files to be archived when a project is complete, to be taken off site by another company. Hugh also manages stationery and recycling for the practice